

2019 EAHA Youth Club Rules

All EAHA rules apply to the EAHA Youth Club.

The youth must be a member of the EAHA Youth Club to earn points. Annual membership dues must be paid to be eligible for year-end awards from the EAHA Youth Club. Points will not begin to accrue until dues are paid.

To qualify for a high point or reserve award, the youth must show the same horse a minimum of eight (8) times in at least one qualifying class. To qualify for a participation award, the youth must show the same horse a minimum of eight (8) times in any one class. All classes qualify a youth for a participation award.

To qualify for a high point or reserve award, the youth's 8 qualifying shows must include at least 2 of the 4 EAHA Youth Club Shows. (The 2019 Youth Club show dates are: 03/23/2019, 05/11/2019, 06/15/2019, 08/03/2019)

To qualify for a participation award, the youth's 8 qualifying shows must include at least 1 of the 4 EAHA Youth Club shows. . (The 2019 Youth Club show dates are: 03/23/2019, 05/11/2019, 06/15/2019, 08/03/2019)

Points will be awarded in accordance with the EAHA points rule. Points from classes not shown in at least eight (8) times will not count.

Points will be kept on a one horse – one rider combination ONLY.

An EAHA Youth Club member may win only one high point/reserve award per show season.

No youth may show a stallion.

No substitution of horses will be allowed.

Each youth that shows the same horse a minimum of eight (8) times in at least one class will receive a participation award.

Saddles will be awarded in all riding categories, if there are sufficient funds to purchase saddles. EAHA Youth Club will pay the cost of a basic saddle. Parents may be allowed to request a different style of saddle and may be allowed to customize the saddle at his/his own expense. More information at the end of the show season. The gaited saddle winner may request a gaited saddle or a western saddle.
